PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Wilhelmina Palmer

In the life, death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth, O God, you have given us an example to follow of what it means to love you, ourselves and others. Lord, we confess that although we claim Jesus, as our Lord and Christ, we do not follow his example. We seek Christ's comfort, healing and mercy for ourselves; yet, when the way becomes difficult, we follow Peter and the disciples who abandoned him. We seek miracles and proofs so we will be comforted and have no doubts; yet, when we are asked to witness, to forgive, or to accept others, we will not find the time, nor the courage to do so. God, whose love never falters or fails, help us to bend our knee and proclaim Christ's love to all. These things we pray for the healing of our congregation, community and world in the name of Jesus, our Christ. Amen.

SILENT PRAYERS OF CONFESSION – Please take this time to meditate quietly.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Romans 12

Leader: Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds.

People: We come in sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has given, to proclaim that, as the body of Christ, we are, each one, blessed and forgiven by our Lord. Amen.

MESSAGE

Rev. Joe Reggin, Interim

“Defining Love”

RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: God sent the Son to proclaim release to those who are bound, to announce that God's promised kingdom is at hand to urge everyone to repent and believe the good news. The Lord is moving toward the time when the glorious liberty of the children of God will be manifest throughout the whole creation. We testify God is at work here and now, when people obey Christ's commission to witness to him and make disciples of all nations, when they spread the good news by their words and embody it in their lives. We believe that God sends us to tell all nations that Christ calls everyone to repentance and faith. We are to proclaim, by word and deed, that Christ gave himself to set people free from sin and self-hatred, from ignorance and disease, from all forms of oppression, and even from death. We are to offer them in Christ's name fullness of life now and forever. We must not distort the gospel by weakening its promises or demands, by identifying it with oppressive structures, by pointing to ourselves instead of Christ. We must not restrict our proclamation to persons just like ourselves. We invite people everywhere to believe in Christ and become his followers. We urge them to join us in telling others the good news and in struggling for justice, compassion, and peace.
